their duties, and bring the opium back. Re-examined by Mr. Wotton-The Farmer asked him if the bringing back of the opium was permissible and witness said it was not, that it was never comtemplated, and was most irregular.

Leong Aming, master of ourge best No. 124 said that he was on board his boat on the night of the 14th before it left Hongkong. Thirt; two chests of opium were put on board at this side and then they went over to the Customs hulk. The boxes were battened down at first but when they went over to the Customs hulk the lids had to be taken off. They were being brought back to Hougkong to be put on unks when a steam launch came out from behind Stonecutters' Island and chased them. Witness continued sailing until he came close to the European ships, because he did not know what the launch might be and was afraid. H had made an application for a permit to carry opium, but the first clerk in the office told him

By Mr. Ewens-He took the opium to the Customs hulk to pay the duty and get it chopped. It was being brought back to be put on board other junks with export permits. He had done the same thing many times before, ever since the Opium Ordinance came into force, and always for the same master. This was the first time the open had bren seized.

Mr. Wotton said that subject to the further. examination of Mr. Lister that, was the case for the presecution.

Evidence for the defence was then called. Commander Rumsey, Superintendent of Imports and Exports, said he had held that office signed forms in blank, but they were filled up by his authority. The permission was to take the opium to the Customs hulk and do whatever. was necessary. He had never heard of any complaint of that, not even in this case. He had simply heard that the opium had been seized, and he said it was on the Farmor's own responsibility. The prosecution was not instigated by witness. The Farmer had a clerk in have been awars of the practice.

By Mr. Wotton-The practice had been discontinued since this case. It was brought to his notice by this case and he then saw it was not in compliance with the Ordinance and he thought the safest thing would be to discontinue it. Mr. Wotton, having read section 11 of the Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart-Smith and Ordinance, said its object was that the Opium Farmer should have touch of all opium brought into or exported from the Colony, that he should know on what boat it was placed, up and distributed amongst the individuals that gave him so much trouble, namely, the ly being brought in that court of persons being in illegal possession of opium. They must get the opium somewhere. How did they get it? They must get permits to move the opium out into the middle of the barbour in cargo boats, and then it might be transferred to sampans, and then be distributed in small quantities all over the colony. That was what the prosecution was simed at. As to Mr. Seth's evidence that the Farmer gave his assent to the practice which had been followed, neither the Farmer nor any one else had any right to add to or take from The case arising out of the large seizure of the Ordinance. After the last Winter Meeting the Stewards of the Race Club addressed a letter to Mr. Phillips, H.B.M.'s Consul, complaining of the most invuly behaviour of the big Chinese crowd on the course which made racing, if not altogether impossible, certainly a most dangerour pastime: the Consul wherenpon, together with his colleagues, entered into negotiations with the native authorities, who now have granted the above reduction, chiefly with a view to enable the Stewards putting up stronger barrier, etc., against the crowd, and thus to prevent any accidents. This motive of the mandarins is very laudable, but we are afraid that strong barriers and deeper ditches alone will not suffice in making the crowd quite harmless. and as an additional precaution we would therefore suggest that at every Race Meeting in future a guard of those well behaved soldiers might attend who did such good service at the last two great fires.—Echo.

PAUPER'S DYING REQUEST.

An amusing and yet pathetic incident in what with some straw lightly thrown over his head, the poet Gray called "the short and simple annals of the poor," is told by Mr. John J. R. Micklejohn, one of the Inspectors of the Poor, at Lerwick, Shetland Islands. He says that some On very good authority we learn that the time ago an old woman, named Barbara Smith; Mandarins have agreed to reduce the rent of the came under the notice of the Board. She was extremely ill, and it did not look likely that she would long need care of any kind. She did not reside on the mainland, but on a small island a few miles distant, and there being no parochial institutions in that place, Barbara necessarily occupied the position of a pauper living out. The trouble from which she suffered dated back many years. In better and more prosperous days she had in some way laid the foundation for Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia, and out of this had spring other complaints as age and bodily infirmities crept apace upon her.

Barbara was not ignorant, albeit she had fallen into poverty. In earlier life she somehow obtained the advantage of a fair education, and this added to native shrewdness, enabled her to use good judgment in respect to her own situation morning to relieve the intestines and other abdominal and state of health. Although she had long viscers and give more life and vivacity to the system suffered from asthma and a bronchial affection-Barbara was wise enough to see that these ailments arose from the disordered stomach and digestion, and that if the main trouble could be cured the others would soon leave her. It is probable that her disease began as others do, with the usual symptoms: headaches, bad breath, the rising of sour fluids in the throat, oppression and faintness at the pit of the stomach, loss of sleep and Sea Sickness, Constitution, Indignation, Heartcoated tongue, dull eyes, bad tast in the mouth. &c., and finally became chronic and hopeless through her not being able to find any remedy The Inspector states that she had been under this strait she one day made the following touching appeal to the Inspector: "I have been swallowing medicines for months. They do me no good. I am going on from worse to worse. I can future attacks. Every one over sixteen being been created :- First to the list published in the codure it no longer. I feel that in a week or two provided with uniform and arms. If anyone Official Gazette is the Order of the Crown, con: I shall be dead. There is one last request I would make of you: give me a bottle of Mother Seigel's renowned for nearly a century, surpasses all others Curative Syrup ; it is my only hope. If it proves a failure and does me no good I will die in peace, and make no more expense to the parish." It seems she had got hold of one of Mother Seigel's Almanacks and read of the great cures wrought by the Syrup in cases like hers. The Board pitied the poor lone woman and granted her petition, believing, however, the Syrup would prove as useless as the other medicines she had already taken. What wa, their astonishment to find, in the course of a few days, that she had not only been able to get out of bed, but to move about outside the house. and had taken journeys to a considerable distance, and was actually enjoying better health than since she was first taken ill. The asthma HOP and bronchitis, which were no more than symptoms of her true disease (indigestion and dyspepsia), rapidly abated, and it now seems that Bar-
